

Steps to the Future — English Summer Programme

Innovation

Llandrillo Menai International has something different to the usual English language summer school, offering the state-of-the-art facilities of one of the largest colleges' in the UK to groups, enabling young people to sample a career pathway to the future. We are very excited about our themed English Summer Programmes, inspiring young people to think about their futures and sample activities in an exciting and challenging way. With our carefully chosen partners and expert tutors, we are providing a rewarding, fun experience to your young people.

Course Title: Innovation

Career Focus: Product Design and Development

Programme Overview:

An introduction to product design and development

English Essentials

Participants will:

- complete an initial assessment of English skills
- carry out all activities through the medium of English
- prepare presentations with groups of friends to explain your innovation project
- learn how to communicate with colleagues and pitch your ideas to backers
- prepare a folder showing off their work during the programme

Location:

Rhos on Sea campus of Grwp Llandrillo Menai, nestling below the foothills of Snowdonia just 2 km from the sea.

English Language Entry Level:

Equivalent to Level 4.0 IELTS or above – there is no official certificated requirement for this programme. This is a guide to tell you the level of delivery for maximum enjoyment of the course

Cost: From £1100 per two week programme. Your programme begins and ends with your included airport transfers. Cost of flights and visas are not included in costs or services provided. Visa advice and invitations supplied.

About your “Steps to the Future ” Summer Programme hosts

Llandrillo Menai International is an experienced international education provider of summer and other short programmes; full-time English Language programmes and A Level, IB and Vocational Diploma courses. Located in the beautiful holiday destination of North Wales and near the largest Welsh tourist resort of Llandudno, Llandrillo Menai International is part of one of the UK’s largest vocational colleges called Grwp Llandrillo Menai. This gives access to all the colleges’ state of the art campus facilities, technology and workshops to create a valuable, fun experience for Summer Programme participants. The award-winning Llandrillo Menai International team are always complimented by their groups on the attention given to programme content, the level of care and creating a memorable, fun experience. We are just a three hour train journey from London and one hour’s drive from Manchester and its International airport.

Accommodation

At Trinity Accommodation Centre, Llandudno, our trusted partners experienced in hosting groups of young

Activities

Our location is near the beautiful Snowdonia National Park, where the mountains meet the sea and by the coastal resort of Llandudno, which offers the best of the British seaside experience. As well as the English Language and Themed programme, we also include:

Visits to World Heritage sites, Tours of the Snowdonia National Park and local beaches, Safe adventure experiences, Picnics and afternoon teas, traditional Punch and Judy show, cinema, shopping excursions, social

Transport

All transport is provided by qualified and licensed drivers in our own fleet of vehicles, includes airport transfers and day to day travel and excursions.