Appointing a Reliable Contractor

- PenCartref can provide you with a list of reliable contractors.
- Have someone with you when you discuss with the contractor what work is to be done.
- Ensure that the contractor gives you a written detailed quotation describing what work is to be done, how much each item will cost.
- Ensure that you accept the quotation in writing and state that no extra work should be carried out without agreement by both parties.
- Advise the contractor that you will pay the final invoice after you have had time to check that all work is complete and to a satisfactory standard and that you are happy with the completed job.
- Be aware that certain trades may require a call out fee before any work is done. Check this with the contractor when you contact them before enlisting their services.
- If you have any concerns with appointing a contractor or organising work in your home, contact PenCartref who will be able to provide you with assistance to have your work carried out.
